Respected mam,

I, Dr. Gaurav Patil, was in my post-graduated programme in Dr. Vasontoo Pawar Medical College. I consider myself fortunate to study under such faculty. This institute not only supported me in academics but also helped me in overall growth. I practised many surgeries from basic to advanced and I will be always grateful for such talented teacher and my guide.

I consider myself to be part of this institute for which I will always be grateful.
